7. ITEMS FOR DISCUSSION

- 7.1 Keeping Colac Public Library at the current site in Gellibrand Street, Colac, and ending Council's involvement in the proposed Colac joint-use library project

Recommendation

Council notes the legitimate concerns of residents and ratepayers in relation to the proposal to replace the existing public library in Gellibrand Street, Colac with access to a planned joint-use library at the "Beechy Centre" at Queen Street, Colac. Council's preference is to retain a stand-alone municipal public library at Gellibrand Street, Colac and to improve that library. Council's preference is to end its involvement in the joint use library project. This matter is to be referred to a Councillor Workshop with a view to establishing how this objective can best be achieved.

- 7.2 Facilitating an excellent school library at the new Colac Secondary College (Beechy Centre)

Recommendation

Council recognizes the need for an excellent, modern library facility at the new Colac Secondary College or "Beechy Centre". Council preference is for this to be a purpose built school library without Council involvement. This matter is to be referred to a Councillor workshop with a view to establishing how this objective can be achieved.

- 7.3 Call for a report on the current status of all agreements and documents relating to the planned Colac joint-use library

Recommendation

Council calls for a report detailing the status of all agreements and other documents in relation to the planned joint-use library. In particular, the report is to provide details of the date such documents were signed, by whom and on what authority.

- 7.4 A proposal to inform the Corangamite Regional Library Corporation and other relevant parties of Council's position

Recommendation

Council requests that the Acting Chief Executive Officer write to the Corangamite Regional Library Corporation, the Education Department and other relevant Parties to inform them of Council's preference regarding the retention of the existing public library and Council's preference to end Council's involvement in the planned joint-use library. This is to be done by close of business Friday, 12 December 2008. Councillors ask that a copy be sent to all Councillors.
