

National NAIDOC Week 2022, 3 - 10 July

Colac Otway Shire Council is proud to acknowledge NAIDOC Week, to celebrate the history, culture and achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

Colac Otway Shire spans the Traditional lands of the Gulidjan and Gadubanud peoples. We acknowledge the Gulidjan and Gadubanud peoples as the Traditional Owners of this region. We pay our respects to their Ancestors and Elders, past, present and emerging.

This NAIDOC week, take the opportunity to learn more about Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, visit www.naidoc.org.au

Have Your Say

There are a number of important projects and initiatives currently on exhibition and open for community feedback.

- Draft Asset Management Policy (closes today, Friday 8 July)

- Upgrade to the fish cleaning facility at the Apollo Bay boat ramp
The Australian Government's Recreational Fishing and Camping Facilities Program has enabled grant funding for a planned upgrade to the fish cleaning facility at the Apollo Bay boat ramp. Colac Otway Shire Council invites feedback in relation to this new project.

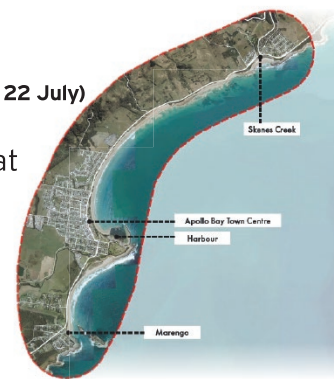

Feedback from fishers, boat ramp users and the general community will assist in establishing user needs and design criteria for the planned upgrades.

Complete the online survey at Council's website (survey closes Friday 15 July)

- Draft Apollo Bay, Skenes Creek, Marengo Community Infrastructure Plan (closes Friday 22 July)

Developed in partnership between Colac Otway Shire Council (Council) and the Great Ocean Road Coast and Parks Authority (the Authority), the plan presents a long-term vision and concept plans for key infrastructure within Apollo Bay, Skenes Creek and Marengo over the next 20 to 30 years.

For this project, community infrastructure includes public spaces and facilities (managed by Council and the Authority) that support the social and economic health and wellbeing of Apollo Bay, Skenes Creek and Marengo.

Scan the QR code to visit Council's website for further information, to make a submission or complete an online survey (where applicable). Hard copies of documents are also available at Council's Customer Service Centres at Colac (2 - 6 Rae Street) or GORVIC at Apollo Bay (100 Great Ocean Road).
