Preferred Session	Forrest Session, 07/10/2026, 1000

Purpose: This session will provide you with the confidence to apply simple and safe ways to support people who are affected by an emergency event that you may encounter as part of your own emergency routine. It will explain how stress and critical incidents affect us and how we can better prepare to assist others during challenging times. By applying a few simple steps, we can maintain our own sense of purpose and wellbeing while providing appropriate information and support to help people make informed decisions.

Group size is limited to 12 people per session.
Morning and afternoon tea is provided.
