16 Days of Activism - Ending Violence Against Women and Children

Colac Otway Shire Council was proud to participate in the silent march for the 16 Days of Activism to end violence against women and children.

Change can start in the workplace, our schools, with friends and family to call out any outdated ideas about gender, sexuality, ability or culture - ideas that have no place in our Colac Otway community.

We can work together in our roles within our community to address and call-out bias to make change and empower women and girls.

In addressing gender equality, we can work toward a Colac Otway community where everyone feels respected and safe.
